Through audience participation theater methods, students improve their ability to name and address these issues in their everyday lives (e.g. in critical education, in political or social change, in performance as a tool for transformation, or in understanding issues of oppression). The activities typically involve warm-ups, image theater or sculpture, and forum theater. The outcomes of this study are to build students' skills and capacity to act in difficult situations in everyday life in a safe and fun space.

The objective of the study is to introduce students to this cinema and to relate it to its historical, political, economic, social, cultural, literary and artistic contexts. Four award winning films will be reviewed: Bashu, the Little Stranger, a 1986 drama directed by Bahram Beizai; The Runner, a 1990 drama directed by Amir Naderi, Turtles Can Fly, a 2004 war drama directed by Bahman Ghobadi, and Children of Heaven, a 1997 drama directed by Majid Majidi. Introduction to Independent Learning is a study designed to prepare students to be successful at Empire State College (ESC). Students will acquire basic ESC survival skills such as learning how to navigate the ESC environment, including the on-line ESC library, MyESC and available learning supports. They will practice college level reading and analysis skills by learning effective reader strategies and applying them to specific texts. Students will learn to identify and prepare major types of academic writing required of undergraduates such as summary, comparison/contrast, reaction, analysis and reflection. Critical thinking will be explored and emphasized as students learn to understand their assignments and evaluate texts. Time Management issues will be addressed in addition to communication with mentors and creating/utilizing support systems for academic success. Through acquiring basic internet literacy and research skills, students will be required to locate and review an academic source, engage in peer editing practice of their writing and provide oral presentations of their learning experience.
